My Help Comes from the Lord

A Song of Ascents

I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From where does my help come?
My help comes from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.
Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is your keeper;
the Lord is your shade on your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore.

Psalms 121 (ESV)

Reflection on Psalm 121

When God's people felt fear along their annual journey to Jerusalem, they raised an anthem, a song like Psalm 121. They cried out with hope into the uncertainty, drowning their fears with verse and chorus. They sang against danger.

The Lord can keep you, because there's nothing this God cannot do. No crisis or circumstance can overwhelm him. He is never surprised or shaken. He made all things, sustains all things, and rules all things, including every detail of our lives, even on the most difficult days. No hill is too high, or night too dark for him. When what you can see only screams anxiety, see the strength of his power in all he has made. Surely the God who made the mountains "is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy" (Jude 1:24).

Prayer

(Based on Paul Tripp's prayer titled, Like You)

O Great God, there is no one like You.
There are no words to adequately capture the wonder of your redeeming power.
No one who knows what You know.
No one who is able to do what you do.
O Lord, it Is You who reign over all that is.
You are the Living God!
You do with your creation whatever you want to do.
No one can question You.
No one has the power to stop Your hand.
You turn hardship into rescue.
You turn suffering into redemption.
You provide a place of refuge in times of uncertainty
Out of trials you bring transformation.
Out of weakness you grow strength.
Out of death You bring life.
Out of darkness You bring light.
You turn foolishness into wisdom.
You cause idolaters to bow in worship.
Every day You create something out of nothing.
Every day you make alive what was once dead.
Every day you redeem what seems beyond redemption.
There is none holy like You Lord,
There is none besides You,
There is no rock like our God. Amen.
